We Thank You

Dimitri Kanovich, we would like to extend to you our deepest thanks for the chance to hear these wonderful musicians. In the environment most inmates are in, it is often difficult to have a sense of peace and comfort. During the concert, for those listening it was a treat. A sense that one is never too far away from the community, and that the community does truly care enough to come and play a form of music one does not always have a chance to hear. We thank you from the depths of our hearts for the kindness you bestowed on us.

Unlike the modern music of our times, Classical music has a peculiar way in taming people. Guiding them, on a path of musical exploration, so alien to those, whom have no exposure to the artists of the past. There is a soothing quality, it is structured in a way to allow one to think deeper and harder. Per chance, even cause a reflection upon oneself. The works so beautiful, they have touched all of our hearts and have made us think of the journey's people make, and the journey that has yet to come, and yet to survive.

Last year's concert was also great, and just like this year, you have gone above and beyond our expectations. If ever you wish to perform for us again, we would be delighted to listen, experience, and feel the masterpieces once again. With open hearts, we look forward to the next time that we, as a community of misguided souls, could ride on the rollercoaster of symphonies.

With your busy schedules, and us being the second performance of the day, we also understand that the valuable time that was donated to us, was indeed valuable. We would like to, as the Inmate Committee of Bath Institution, extend to your organization a donation as a thank you for all the work your group does, especially for those trapped between four walls.

Finally, thank you for the painting and your fathers' memoirs, they will be available for the population to see and read.

Dmitri, you are a testament to man's ability to live ones dreams and succeed. Maybe there will be a day when you can reach out a helping hand, or coat, to someone whom you feel deserves it dearly, and share that dream. We would like you to accept our donation of $500 in hopes that it may help you to continue spreading beautiful music to the people.

Спасибо большое за всё что вы, сделали для нас.

Yours truly,
the Inmate Committee of Bath Institution
