

You are cordially invited...

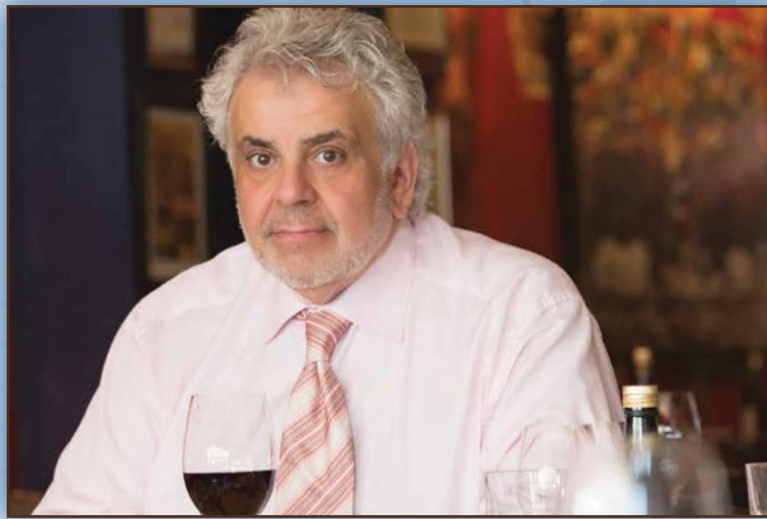

Looking at the Stars, a federal charity dedicated to bringing classical music to those who need it most and expect it least, is excited to collaborate with St. Paul's Bloor St., for an exclusive fundraising event celebrating our return to Canada's Long-Term Care Community.

Tuesday, May 19, 2026 6:30 PM
St. Paul's Bloor Street, 227 Bloor St. East, Toronto

Welcome back, Bobby Hammer!

As we launch our renewed engagement with the Long-Term Care Community, we can think of no better Keynote Guest than the irrepressible Roberto Martella. His difficult health challenges and his response to them are a testament to his joie de vivre and an inspiration to us all.

Roberto Martella (aka "Bobby Hammer") — Keynote Address
Founder of iconic Toronto Italian restaurant, Grano

We are very pleased to welcome back this ensemble of accomplished musicians, who have been partners with Looking at the Stars for many years. We appreciate their commitment to our mission.

Jonathan Crow, violin

Joseph Johnson, cello

Barry Shiffman, viola

Joonghun Cho, piano

$250 per ticket
Charitable tax receipt ($200) eligible
